The Sailing Adventure Started with.....

A group of volunteers, originally known as the Jubilee Sailing Ship Project working together with shipbuilder W.G. Porter & Son Pty Ltd constructed the tall ship STV "One and All" at North Haven, commencing work in 1982, launching the hull in December 1985 and commissioning the ship 5th April 1987. The design of the ship was based on the original rig of an 1850's Brigantine. She joined the 1987-88 First Fleet Re-enactment and has been sailing regularly ever since. The ship is mainly used for Personal Development Sail Training Voyages for youth but also offers open days, school visits, day trips, twilight cruises and voyages for people of all ages.

The many hundreds of people associated with those early days, and those who have taken an interest and contributed since are now known as the volunteer group Friends of The One and All Sailing Ship Inc. Joining as member, opportunities to assist the ship can be in many ways.

Personal Development via Sail Training

Sail training is a platform for learning about yourself, your abilities and what you are capable of achieving in life whilst discovering how to safely sail a tall ship. The STV “One and All” has been purpose built for this role.

It is NOT training people FOR the sea but training FOR people ON the sea. It IS an exercise in teamwork, in living and working with other people, and in succeeding in all tasks attempted. It is particularly successful on a tall ship – one cannot walk away from a problem at sea.
